$14 Macabeo, Parellada, Xarel-lo

Spain (Barcelona)

Roger Goulart, Brut Nature Cava Reserva, 2021

The nose is a captivating medley of fresh white and citrus fruits, intertwined with subtle notes of fine lees, reminiscent of toasted brioche, dried fruit, and a hint of pastry. These autolytic notes, developed during its extended time on lees, add layers of complexity without overpowering the fruit. On the palate, it is remarkably fresh and dry, yet beautifully balanced. The vibrant acidity is well-integrated, providing a refreshing backbone, leading to a long, persistent finish that echoes with fruity and delicately toasted nuances, leaving a clean and invigorating impression.

$14 Criolla Chica, Criolla Grande Argentina (Mendoza)

Mundo Reves Le Petit Voyage Criolla, 2023

This unfiltered rosé Pet Nat pours with a hazy pink hue, lively bubbles, and a raw, energetic charm. Aromas of wild strawberries, red currants, and rose petals rise from the glass, accented by hints of citrus zest and crushed herbs. On the palate, it is juicy and refreshing, with flavors of pomegranate, watermelon rind, and tart cherries layered over a subtle mineral backbone. The natural sparkle and lees contact lend a creamy texture, while brisk acidity and a dry finish keep the wine precise and invigorating.

$12 Moscato Italy (Moscato d'Asti D.O.C.G.) Vietti, NV

An intense aroma of ripe yellow fruit (peaches, apricots, pears), floral notes (rose petals) and refined exotic spices (freshly cut ginger). The sweetness is balanced with a crisp, and refreshing acidity.

SPARKLING ROSE/RED

$16 Lambrusco di Sorbrara Italy (Emillia)

Lambrusco "Sant' Agata", Paltrinieri, NV

The Paltrinieri estate makes this Sant'Agata Lambrusco from Sorbara. Lambrusco from Sorbara is more ruby red and lighter in color. The aromas are more driven by cherries and raspberries. What we love about this Lambrusco is that it finishes with a dry, mineral finish.

The Mirabelle Rosé has generous aromas of strawberry, raspberry, kumquat and rhubarb. Notes of apricot, red plum, shortbread and cinnamon delicately join the bursting flavors of red apple and watermelon on the palate. Juicy on entry, this Rosé's bright acidity leads to a long, lingering finish.

STILL WHITE

$18 Semillon California (Napa Valley)

Forlorn Hope, “NACRE”, 2014

The fruit for our 2014 Nacré was hand-picked and pressed whole cluster, and underwent spontaneous/native fermentation in stainless steel. Racked off lees at the completion of ferment, the wine was bottled in June of 2016 in order to allow the significant portion of the wine’s aging and development to occur under cork. To this end, it was aged six+ years in bottle prior to its release. The Nacré is produced in the same fashion as the Sémillons of Australia’s Hunter Valley and is capable of decades of aging

Bright straw yellow. Floral nose (jasmine, peony), with notes of apple, plum and citrus. Tasty, balanced mouth, with mineral nuances.

$14 Chardonnay New Zealand (Hawkes Bay)

Kumeu Village Chardonnay, 2019

The 2019 Vintage gave us outstanding quality, both in Kumeu and Hawkes Bay, with beautiful fruit aroma, flavour and concentration. Our own Rays Road vineyard in Hawkes Bay made up 32% of the final blend, which gives the wine a distinctive limestone edginess. The moderate alcohol level of 13.3% gives freshness with a lovely flinty texture. The citrus elements of Chardonnay shine through with a refreshingly crisp acid finish.
